

Addicted to Plastic

1. What is another name for the North pacific central Gyre?
2. What is a gyre? How many are there in the world.
3. What are the pellets of plastic that look like fish eggs called?
4. What was the plastic to food ratio of the sample?
5. Why are these small pellets of plastic so dangerous?
6. How much garbage washes up on the beach everyday on average?
7. What is the average amount on plastic found in a bird's stomach? What is the most extreme example?
8. What are some of the struggles that recyclers face?

Addicted to Plastic

1. What is another name for the North pacific central Gyre?
2. What is a gyre? How many are there in the world.
3. What are the pellets of plastic that look like fish eggs called?
4. What was the plastic to food ratio of the sample?
5. Why are these small pellets of plastic so dangerous?
6. How much garbage washes up on the beach everyday on average?
7. What is the average amount on plastic found in a bird's stomach? What is the most extreme example?
8. What are some of the struggles that recyclers face?